Inside Sales Representative

Do you have the passion and drive to achieve results? Do you want to join a well-established, global company within the technology industry where five-star customer service is at the heart of everything we do?

Whether you are a recent graduate looking to kick start a career in sales, or you've already discovered your passion for sales and are looking to progress to the next step, then this is the perfect role for you. Our Sales Hero Academy will provide you with the fundamental sales skills, product knowledge and understanding of our clients that you need to get off to the best start but you must be self-motivated and be able to work independently.

This is a 100% remote working role open to applicants living anywhere in Ohio. Applications cannot be accepted from anyone living outside of Ohio.

What will you do in your new role?

- Utilize the techniques you learn in training to convert warm inbound leads into new customers
- Take ownership of a valuable portfolio of existing customers, focusing on building and strengthening relationships, to understand their needs and maximize their potential
- Build and develop your sales pipeline with a pro-active approach
- Work hard to win new business opportunities from leads who have previously enquired but haven't yet become customers
- Act as the dedicated point of contact for customer queries via phone and email
- Pursue sales targets and objectives for your assigned territory
- Maintain our CRM system with accurate customer and lead information

Who are we looking for?

- "Hunter mindset" – you are an ambitious person who won't rest until you make the sale!
- Competitive and money-motivated
- Coachable with a willingness to constantly learn and develop your skills
- Excellent communication skills and active listening
- Self-motivated with a can-do attitude and high personal goals
- Strong organisational skills and ability to multitask
- Strong IT skills
